PC Sweeney is a founding board member and current Political Director of EveryLibrary, America’s first political action committee for libraries. EveryLibrary operates under the philosophy “Any library initiative anywhere matters to every library everywhere”. The organization has helped dozens of libraries with local library funding initiatives. Along with John Chrastka, he is author of the newly published book, Winning Elections and Influencing Politicians for Library Funding. He was named a Library Journal Mover & Shaker in 2015.
