The Northeast Kansas Library System (NEKLS) helps to provide the Hoopla streaming ebook, movie, music, audiobook, tv show and comics platform to public libraries in our region.

Hoopla access requires an account, created with your library card and pin information and a valid email address, but once you have an account, you can stream, or download, a wide array of materials suitable for every member of your family!

For more information or help with Hoopla, please contact your local library!

How to download & stream free videos, music, and audiobooks on your mobile device or computer.
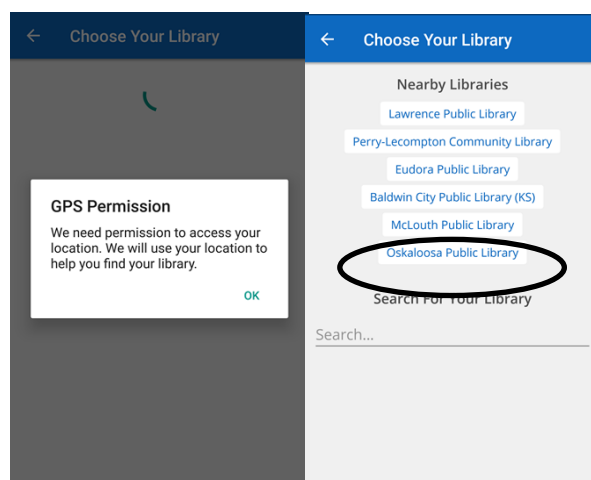

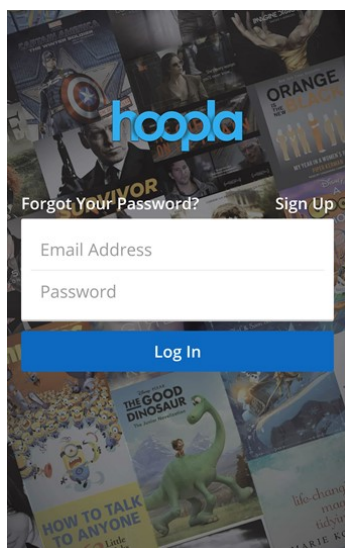

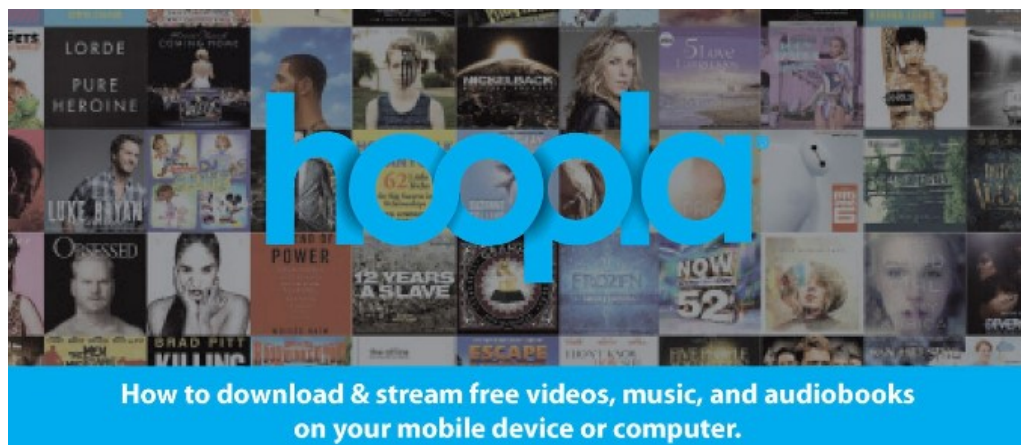

1. Register for a Hoopla account on the app (by tapping the "Sign Up" link on the app, as shown below) or go to hoopladigital.com to sign in. You'll need an email address and Library Card account.

2. To sign in: Allow location tracking on your phone to get a list of libraries that are near you. If you don't want to do this, you can just do a search for your library and find it that way.
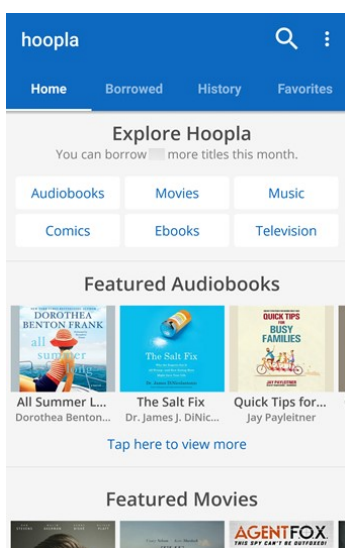

3. Explore Hoopla—find new ebooks or audiobooks, TV shows, Movies, music and comics to read! Click the title of any material to borrow (find any titles you've borrowed under the Borrowed link). Anything you borrow will automatically be returned at the end of the lending period (no late fees!)

For more help, visit the help section in the Hoopla app or go to the Help link at the bottom of hoopladigital.com
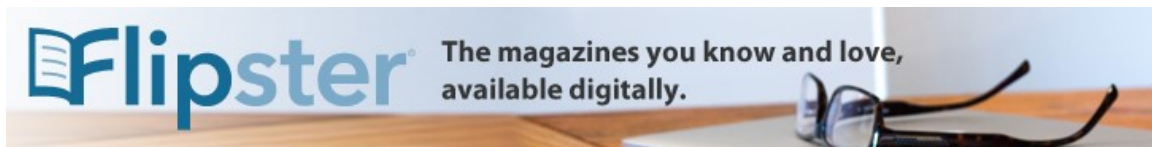

NEKLS Flipster

The Northeast Kansas Library System (NEKLS) helps to provide the Flipster online magazine platform to public libraries in our region.

For Flipster all you need is a NExpress library card number (found on the back of your library card or by calling/visiting your public library) to access the magazines. Go to http://catalog.nexpresslibrary.org, log in and click the "Flipster" link, or download the app and start enjoying magazines today.

For more information or help with Flipster, please contact your local library!

State Library of Kansas

The State Library makes the database aggregator, Explora, possible for all libraries in Kansas. Explora offers several article and general knowledge databases that are all searchable through a single search box (kind of like Google, but with more reliable information provided by these databases). Explora also pulls together topical and event-driven informational packets that students can use to create reports or just dive deeply into current events.

You can access Explora in Kansas just by going to the http://kslib.info/221/Online-Databases page and clicking on the link for Explora there. No account or login needed!

- Simple search that quickly delivers relevant results, including primary source documents, news articles, and Associated Press videos

- High-quality articles licensed from reputable publishers and recognized by library professionals

- Easy-to-browse categories organized by popular topic

- Topic Overviews that provide users with a starting point for research

- Text-to-Speech for HTML articles to assist struggling readers or those learning English

- No ads or pop-up windows

- COPPA compliancy, meaning EBSCO does not ask for or require personal information to use its databases

- Password-protected personal folders that allow users to save search results in a secure and organized holding area

- Citation help, including the ability to export citation information to online bibliography generators such as EasyBib and NoodleTools

Mango Languages is a service provided by the Kansas State Library that offers language learning lessons for 72 languages. It offers interactive, online learning through either the website (accessible through http://kslib.info/221/Online-Databases) or through the apps available for all major mobile platforms.

To save your lesson progress, you'll need to use your Kansas State Library eCard to create an account with Mango—once you've done that, though, you can access it from anywhere you have a few moments to spend learning a new language!

The Cloud Library and OneClick Digital libraries are both offered through the State Library. They offer online access to ebooks and eaudiobooks, respectively.

Cloud Library

This service offers mostly fiction books with nothing required but your Kansas Library eCard. You can access your books from the web or from any of the common mobile platforms.

RBdigital (previously OneClickdigital)

RBdigital offers both fiction and some popular nonfiction audiobooks. For RBdigital, you must create an account with your Kansas Library eCard and a val-id email address, but once you have that account, you can access your audio-books from most mobile platforms.
