Parks rock, too!

Visit your Olathe City Parks this summer, and watch for Olathe Public Library rocks while you are there. If you can, take a picture of the rock and send it to us! You are welcome to move an OPL rock to another spot, but please leave it in the park you found it in for others to discover.

Q&A

Q. What if I read part of a book, but don't finish it?

A. It counts.

Q. How about audio books?

A. They count.

Q. How about movies?

A. They do not count, although some bingo squares include movies & you can attend movie programs for entries.

Q. Do the books HAVE to come from Olathe or Johnson County libraries?

A. Nope! You can count any book you read this summer.

Ways to Participate

Participation = entries into monthly prize drawings

There will be end-of-summer prizes, too!

August 18 is the last day to submit entries for the drawing.

Read!

Log your reading online or submit your log in person by putting it in the jukebox at either location. Ask for a new reading log at Information Desk.

Write a review

Submit online, via email to aeiben@olatheks.org, or put it in the jukebox. If you'd like your review to be on display in the library, write it on a "record," or note on your review that you are open to having it shared publically. No personal information will be displayed.

Attend a program

Get an event ticket while you are there, write your information on it, and drop it in the jukebox before you leave. Participating online? You'll get a code to enter.

Play bingo

Complete the tasks on your bingo card. Get 5 in a row (any direction) and that's a bingo! Drop completed bingo cards into the jukebox.
