Valentine Tea with Lisa Hansford

6:30 pm, February 13

Participants will hear the history of tea, learn how to make the perfect pot of tea, and enjoy sweet treats.

Lisa's tea journey began in October 2010 in Lexington Kentucky at the Master 101 Tea Class which was instructed by Bruce Richardson. Her tea education has allowed her to share the joy of a simple cup of tea and great conversation, by hosting tea parties with friends.

This event is suitable for kindergarten age and older but all ages are welcome. We ask that children under age 12 are accompanied by an adult. The event is free.

Please register by February 9. Because of the nature of this program, registration limited to 26 participants.

Orphan Trains with Marilyn Holt

6:30 pm, March 6

Have you read about the orphan trains? Who rode the orphan trains? Where did they go? Did kids come to Kansas on the orphan trains? From 1853-1929, hundreds of kids did ride the orphan trains from the eastern states to the west. Join us as we learn more about this part of our shared history. Program is interactive and refreshments provided!

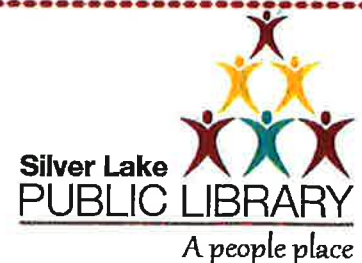

Marilyn Irvin Holt is a former director of publications for the Kansas State Historical Society and adjunct instructor at the University of Kansas. She is the author of seven books, including The Orphan Trains: Placing Out in America. She has spoken to numerous audiences in Kansas on the topic, made presentations at national conferences, and has been a consultant for documentaries on the orphan trains produced by Kansas PBS stations and the national The American Experience.

This event is suitable for kindergarten age and older but all ages are welcome. We ask that children under age 12 are accompanied by an adult. The event is free. Please register by March 2.
